LEADING LAW FIRMS

THE VERDICT IS IN.

And it's hot.

WHAT MAKES A LAW FIRM STAND OUT? What makes a good lawyer? Who do you trust when your business, and your reputation, is on the line? We asked and you answered. This firm was selected by you, the SmartCEO reader, as one of the leading law firms in the Baltimore area. The following description was compiled from reader surveys and firm Web sites.

NEUBERGER, QUINN, GIELEN, RUBIN & GIBBER, P.A. (NQGRG)

Founded in 1989, NQGRG focuses on corporate, transactional, tax, litigation, real estate, bankruptcy, estates and trusts, and intellectual property. Reputation is something reader Steve Meizlish keeps in mind when selecting a firm, as is aggressiveness and size. The firm should be “big enough to have the diversity to handle most needs, yet small enough to have the mobility to truly work as a team,” says Meizlish, of MeizCorp Services. “A great lawyer has to be a great deal maker and know when to negotiate and when to protect his client using all the provisions established in the law.” NQGRG has 27 attorneys ready to work with you.
